

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advice from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it. I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it. I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me." Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest. P. D. Ewell, Administrator etc.

Mary A. Sneed et al.
In the Chancery Court of Fayette County, Tennessee.

In this cause, it appearing from the cross-bill of Mary A. Sneed and John S. Webb, Administrator of Robert H. Shepherd, deceased, filed in this cause, which is duly sworn to, that certain of the parties made cross-defendants therein, i. e., Annie P. Hardeman, William Reynolds, Sophia Reynolds, Ben Weems, William H. Weems, Henry R. Todd, Willis E. Britt, Carrie Ewell Partial and her husband, DeWitt Partial, George Ewell, Sallie Ewell Gay and her husband, —Gay, Rosa Campbell, Sallie Ewell Carrington, James Ewell, Emma Ewell Dick and her husband, —Dick, Mary Ewell Pilcher and her husband, George Pilcher Annie Ewell, Gwynetta Ewell, Tom Webb, Mamie Gwynetta Meador and her husband, John B. Meador, Annie Evans Croft and her husband, Clyde Croft, Alvern Olive Evans, Ewell Evans Gary, and Ewell Somers, who are sued individually and as a class of persons having the same right, title and interest, if any, in the estate of Mary H. Ewell, late of Fayette County, Tennessee, and who are sued also as a class of persons constituting the heirs at law and next of kin of R. H. D. Ewell who died approximately during the year 1886, a resident of Fayette County, Tennessee, are all and each and every one of them non-residents of the State of Tennessee, and that said bill is filed against the unknown heirs of Mary H. Ewell, deceased, and of R. H. D. Ewell, deceased, and it appearing from said bill that the names of such unknown heirs made defendants are unknown and cannot be ascertained upon diligent inquiry, and the residence of such unknown heirs is unknown and cannot be ascertained upon diligent inquiry;

Each and every one of the parties above named and said unknown heirs are, therefore, hereby required to appear on or before the first Monday of November next, it being a regular rule day of said Court, before the Clerk & Master of said Court at his office in Somerville, Tennessee, and make defense to said bill filed against them and others in said Court in this cause by said P. D. Ewell, Administrator etc., or otherwise the said bill will be taken for confessed as to them and set for hearing ex parte.

It is therefore ordered that this notice be published for four consecutive weeks in the Fayette Falcon, a newspaper published at Somerville, Tennessee.

This the 23rd day of September, 1915,
W. M. MAYO, Clerk & Master.

The colds Of Mankind Cured By Pineal

Have you ever gone through a typical pine forest when you had a cold? What a vigorous impulse it sent! How you opened wide your lungs to take in those invigorating and mysterious qualities. Yes, Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey possesses those stimulating qualities and overcomes hacking coughs. The inner lining of the throat is strengthened in its attack against cold germs. Every family needs a bottle constantly at hand. 25c. 18

Running The Paper.

Everybody thinks he can run a newspaper better than the benighted souls who have been placed by Providence in that unenviable position. Maybe its because the editor's faults are glaring ones—out in the open in black and white—or, possibly, it is just a queer quirk of human nature and the jobs so easy, anyhow. Running the paper is a sort of a side line with lots of people. They offer advice in their spare moments with the same spirit as they play golf or pinocle. One would have the editor a militant suffragist, another demands that he rail against women voting. The prohibitionists can't see how any decent person can be for the regulated saloons and accuse him of selling out to the liquor interests if he takes that side, while the "wets" say he is being intimidated by the churches and ruled by the "drys" if he is opposed to the saloon. The Democrats say the paper is a "dirty rag" if the editor is Republican in his sympathies, and the Republicans stop their subscriptions if he comes out for a Democrat. If the editor is for anything the anti-condemn him, and vice versa. If he takes a stand he is trying to dictate to the community. If he doesn't take a stand, he is a mollycoddle and a jellyfish. He is a crank a reformer, a fanatic, a four-flusher, a crook, a disturber of the peace or just a plain idiot, according as he meets with the desires of his subscribers or goes against them. And there you are. The average man never thinks of the hours of toil—downright, soul-sweating toil, it takes to get out a paper. He never thinks of the worries, the trials, the tribulations every editor must undergo. Some of them are so unappreciative of his efforts to boost their town and make money for them, that they won't even contribute the price of a subscription. Just remember this. The editor, apart from the perfectly laudable desire to make a decent living for himself and his family, has only the good of the community at heart. If he disagrees with you on any subject political, moral or educational, you and not he may be wrong.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect The Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of R. W. GROVE, 25c.

Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

When Baby Has the Croup.

When a mother is awakened from sound sleep to find her child who has gone to bed apparently in the best of health struggling for breath, she is naturally alarmed. Yet if she can keep her presence of mind and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy every ten minutes until vomiting is produced, quick relief will follow and the child will drop to sleep to awaken in the morning as well as ever. This remedy has been in use for many years with uniform success. For sale by all dealers. 18

For Indigestion.

Never take pepsin and preparations containing pepsin or other digestive ferments for indigestion, as the more you take the more you will have to take. What is needed is a tonic like Chamberlain's Tablets that will enable the stomach to perform its functions naturally. For sale by all dealers. 18
